MEMORY VERSE

And all who believed were together and had all things in common.

- Acts 2:44

ONE BIG THING:

Jesus' followers were committed to God, each other, and the lost.

REVIEW:

This week at CitiKids, we looked at Acts 2:42-47. We talked about how the first Christians were committed (devoted) to God, to each other, and to their friends who didn't know Jesus yet. This means they were willing to do whatever it took to love God and love each other. They worshipped God and prayed to Him. They shared whatever they had so their friends wouldn't be in need. They did all of this because they knew God loved them and had taken care of them by sending His Son, Jesus for their sin.

PRAY TOGETHER AS A FAMILY:

"Father, thank you for loving us and sending us Jesus. Help us to love you and love others like you tell us to. Thank you for sending your Spirit to help us do this. Amen."
